SUMMER READING KICKOFF

Be sure not to miss the Summer Reading Celebration at Moore County Library in Carthage on Saturday, June 16 from 10:00am until 12:00pm. Kids in kindergarten through 5th grade may sign up for the “Libraries ROCK” summer reading program and make exciting craft creations. Visit with special guests, including the Texas Roadhouse

Armadillo and Smokey the Bear. There will also be face painting, games, a fire truck, adoptable dogs, and lemonade and popcorn at this free event. Please note that Vass Area Library and Robbins Area Library will be closed on June 16 so that all library staff and patrons may attend the Kickoff celebration. We hope to see you there!

ADULT SUMMER READING

Why should the kids have all the fun? Adults may also sign up at any branch or online for the “Libraries ROCK” summer reading program. For every “Great American Read” novel you read and/or for every 30 minutes you read & log on-line, you’ll be entered into the drawing for prizes!
